UNEXPECTED FAITH

Your invited to an adventure

Adventure—Noun—an unusual and exciting, typically hazardous, experience or activity. Verb—engage in hazardous and exciting activity, especially the exploration of unknown territory.

Personalize the adventure you remember the most.

- Matthew 4:18-22 (NLV)

Events have a power that shape our lives

Fact—Certain events really effect our faith both positive and negative

Fact—God allows the exact experiences He wants us to have in order to shape the specific destiny He designed for us.

The Journey

- John 10:10 (AMP)

The true battle the evil one wants is your faith. He does not want your family. He wants your faith because that is the fuel to live out your God birthed destiny.

How is this perspective formed?

Faith in not a feeling it's a choice to trust God even when the road is uncertain ahead.

What is funny is our faith can move mountains. Our doubts can create mountains.

Every second you spend wishing God would take away the specific struggle is a fortified opportunity to overcome.

How do we do this?

- Hebrews 10:23 (ESV)

 - Hebrews 10:23-25 (MSG)
- A. Discovery and Recognition of God
 - B. Time of Learning and Belonging labeled “The Life of Discipleship.”
 - C. The Journey Outward—Where our Focus is Outward but it comes from a New and Grounded Center of Ourselves
 - D. The Journey Inward—A Deep and very Personal Inward Journey—It almost comes as an unsettling experience. Yet results in healing for those who continue through the entire process.

Just because God is quiet does not mean He has forgotten you!
